Mark 9:41

THE FREEDOM OF GOD

Today's readings remind us that God is free: God acts as God wills regardless of what human beings might expect. In the reading from Numbers, God's spirit enters two men, Eldad and Medad, even though they had not been with the others who had received the spirit of God. And in Mark's Gospel, Jesus endorses an unknown exorcist, who did God's work in the name of Jesus but was not officially sanctioned by the disciples. That God's spirit is shared widely does not threaten Moses or Jesus. They celebrate the notion that God's spirit blows where it wills. Moses was shaping the people of Israel, and Jesus similarly was shaping the community of disciples, to encounter a radically free God who doesn't fit their preconceptions. This encounter, when received with humility, widens their vision and deepens their faith. God continues to shape the Church similarly today, to open us up to God's freedom.

LOOK WITHIN

A wrestling match of sorts takes place in this section of Mark's Gospel. Jesus tries mightily to describe what it will mean to be his followers, and the disciples try mightily to avoid the subject. They point to an outsider, and the dangers he poses. Jesus turns the tables and asks his disciples to look within themselves: how are they a danger to Jesus and his work? Jesus uses graphic language, invoking self-amputation, to underscore his point.

Sometimes our most difficult obstacles lie deep within. Like our hands and feet, some attitudes and habits are deeply a part of us, and their removal would be traumatic for us. Yet we know that some beliefs (such as idolatries based on race, wealth, or gender) or behaviors (such as addictions) seriously harm ourselves and many others. We need a prayerful, non-neurotic watchfulness about our inner life. When necessary, we need a fierce resistance to anything that places us or others in danger.

UNITY IN CHRIST

Jesus, in today's Gospel from Mark, says "whoever is not against us is for us." Mark was speaking to his own Christian community. From its beginnings, there were tensions in the Church about who speaks for Jesus. Jesus himself always called for unity of heart and a diversity of expression as a sign of the truth of the Gospel. It is no secret that in Christian history and continuing today, divisions have seriously damaged the message and cause of Christ.

In our own time and place, cultural and political divisions have reduced our ability to solve problems and to live together in a just and peaceful society. Perhaps this is a time for Christians to step up, to remember that our unity in Christ is far deeper than the differences that we perceive. We are called to reach out and listen to each other, to honor each other as members of the Body of Christ. Christians can lead the way, and show everyone watching how it's done.

In-person High School Night at Cor Jesu Academy

Thursday, September 30!

Register at

corjesu.org/admissions/visit/high-school-nights

We invite you to meet Cor Jesu students and learn, from their perspectives, how they shine at CJA through faith, spirituality, academics, fine arts, co-curriculars, athletics and more.

Registration is open to girls in grades 5-8 and their families. Session 1 will be held from 6:00-6:30 p.m. and session 2 will be held from 7:15-7:45 p.m.

Please note that only Cor Jesu will be presenting at this event.

We hope to see you there!

As disciples of Jesus Christ, we actively participate in worship, faith formation, and community outreach.

40 DAYS FOR LIFE®

During this 40-day long campaign, our members are invited to join other Christians in praying for an end to abortion.

Do you have 1 hour
to pray for an end to abortion?

Although many churches & groups have adopted a day during this campaign, there are still some gaps to fill.

On various days during this campaign, we need volunteers to fill the gaps and pray peacefully for 1 hour at the abortion facility in Granite City, IL.

Can you help fill those gaps?

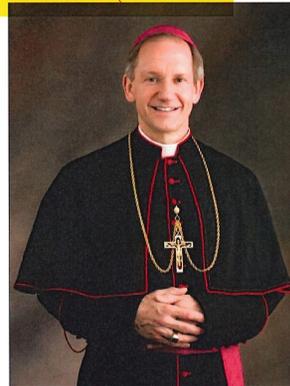

If you can help, please contact us at:
636-206-6220 or vigil@40daysgc.com

or sign up online by clicking on the dates with urgent need (in red) on the 40 Days GC calendar:
